

The World This Week

Germans are hammered by First Army barrage on Western Front; trapped paratroopers are still holding out.

Latvian Capitol of Riga is being closed in by Red Army while other forces engage in battle on Lithuanian frontier of East Prussia. Other units are crossing Southern Poland into Czechoslovakia.

The Fifth Army is within 12 miles of Bologna Rimini highway after crashing through German Gothic line in Italy. Eighth Army has encountered bitter opposition at edge of Po Valley.

Tokyo radio reports continued air attacks on Philippines by seaborne United States planes.

DEAR STUDENTS:

It is such a joy to see you all back at GSCW, and to see so many of you new students, too. We'd like to take this opportunity to thank you who were here last year for your interest in College Government and to say that the success of our program depends on the participation of every student. This can be a good year at GSCW, and it is up to each one of us to do our part toward making that good year. There is a place and a job for every one of you. We hope that you will continue your interest in CGA and that you new students will come to realize that this is your government. Through it, you may work toward making college life a real experience in real living and real learning. Please feel free to come to us with ideas and suggestions, because we work to achieve successful group living—and you are important to the well running of that life.

Much work in classes and activities and also a lot of fun lie ahead of us at the beginning of this new year. Our very best wishes for a happy and successful year to you.

Sincerely, your friend,
BETTY BOYD,
President CGA

Blalock, Wyatt Speak To Students At Retreat

The presidents of the three major organization, Y, Rec, and CGA, stressed the theme, "The Place of the Student in a World at War," at the annual Fall Retreat at Lake Laurel, September 16-17. Faculty advisors and a group of Freshmen attended in addition to the officers of the three organizations.

Plans were made for Orientation Week and for the coming year. Campus problems were discussed and plans for the elimination of them were decided upon.

Mrs. John Blalock, president of the Georgia League of Women Voters, and Mrs. Wyatt, president of the College League of Women Voters, were guest speakers.

Three Major Organizations Outline Objectives for Year

Physical Fitness Day To Climax Snag Week

Physical Fitness Day, an annual event sponsored by the Recreation Association, will be held on Saturday, October 7, as a climax to Snag Week activities.

This year, competition will again be between dormitories and the cup will be awarded to the dormitory "most physically fit."

Throughout the day, sports will be held on the campus, and points awarded to the winning teams. Any student wishing to use the pool is privileged to do so; however, points will not be awarded for swimming.

Bonds and stamps are to be sold and the dormitory buying the greatest number will receive credit in points.

Late in the afternoon, a picnic supper will be held on the front campus, followed by a dance in the gym. During the dance the cup is to be presented to the winning dormitory.

On Friday evening preceding Physical Fitness Day, a big bonfire will be held at which time each dormitory will burn its "Snag Week" trash. The following events will be held: Volley ball, Corroth, basketball, table tennis, Astor, Davis, basketball, tennis, badminton, softball, baseball, Virginia Newman, Elizabeth Wagoner, and Miss Calkins. Town and Country, Anne George.

Hughes, John Hodges, Elizabeth Taylor, and Miss Calkins. Town and Country, Anne George.

Rain, Upperclassmen Receive Freshmen For Orientation Week

Not only the best variety of Milledgeville rain but the newly returned upper classmen greeted the new students as they arrived on campus Monday for the all eventful Orientation Week.

Official welcome came Tuesday morning at opening assembly, and after the English test students were ready and willing to limber up joints in the informal dancing sponsored by Rec.

More tests and more orientation came in the program Wednesday, and that day was climaxed with the new students bedecking in all degrees of beauty for the formal banquet while the returned upper classmen looked on with hungry eyes.

Objectives for the three major organizations for the coming year were outlined by the president of each during retreat at Lake Laurel. All the activities of the year will be centered around these aims.

GSCW Adds 18 New Members To Faculty

GSCW has 18 new staff members this year. A short biographical sketch of each follows:

Doctor George W. Beiswanger, Professor of Philosophy and Education, A.B. Carthage College, Illinois; B.D. Hamma Divinity School, Ohio; M. A. State University of Iowa; and Ph. D. at the same institution. He has taught in Ohio Wesleyan University, Monticello in Illinois where he was also dean of instruction, and Parsons. He has come to GSCW from the assistant Editorship of Theatre Arts Monthly, and this summer he has participated in a symposium on music, the theatre, and the arts at Black Mountain College, and he has conducted a seminar in the esthetics of the dance at the summer session of Colorado College.

Mrs. Barbara Beiswanger, Associate Professor of Physical Education, B.S. University of Oregon; M.A. Ohio Wesleyan University; Ph. D. New York University. She has studied with Martha Graham, Doris Humphrey, Charles Weidman, and Hanya Holm. Has taught in the University of Oregon, Ohio Wesleyan, Monticello College, Hunter College. Her field is the dance. She takes the place made vacant by the resignation of Miss Sonya Borenstein.

Mr. Paul Carroll, Professor of Education, on leave with the Education Panel of the Agricultural and Industrial Development Board of Georgia. He will work with this board through June, 1945. A. B. Wofford College; M. A. Peabody College; graduate study at Columbia University.

Mr. W. E. Moore, Professor of

Elizabeth Knowles outlines the program for Rec as follows:

1. To increase participation in intramural and club activities.

2. To continue the publication of the Rec News Sheet in order that all students be informed of the events sponsored by the Recreation Association, and become acquainted with ways of becoming more physically fit.

3. To make it possible for each girl to win awards through participation in re-creative activities, the ultimate award being physical fitness.

4. To increase and improve the play space of our campus.

5. To cooperate with the YWCA, CGA, and the administration in the attainment of the mutual objectives of our college.

Betty Boyd, president of CGA, stated that the objectives for CGA for the year include the following main points:

1. Organization of a League of Women Voters. We feel that that since so many of our students are or will soon be voters, some means should be offered for them to make themselves intelligent and effective voters and thinking and working citizens.

League is a non-partisan organization working for good government, and we feel that a connection with this group would bring much of interest and value to our students.

2. Development of house codes. This plan for group living has proved itself worthy of a major spot. Through house codes, a more workable means of democratic and smooth-running cooperation in dormitory life can be effected.

3. Bringing in more people and attempting to develop leadership. (Continued on Page Four)

Food, Supplies Are Sold In Parks

New on the campus this Fall is Student Union, the bar in the basement of Parks, which now sells books, school supplies, and various foods. Mrs. C. C. Mullis, who is in charge of the Student Union, stated that she plans to feature a different article or food each week of the year.

The variety of articles sold will be dependent upon public demand. Cosmetics, toothpaste, and other commodities will be added as the students request them.

Mr. J. H. Dewberry, Bursar, has announced that the Student Union has been developed for convenience of the students.

Student Support
Will Bring Success

Outstanding events which will be projects of the three major organizations of our campus, Y, Rec, and CGA, are outlined in a story on page one of this paper.

The officers in these organizations cannot make these features successful by themselves. This responsibility falls on each student individually. These future activities add a wholesome variety to our college routine which would be impossible to have on our campus were it not for these organizations.

We, as students, are part of these organizations and the responsibility for the success of the programs of the year rests on us. Our support will be the first step to the success of the activities.

'America' Traces
U. S. History

By HAZEL SMITH

An amazing novel has been written by Stephen Vincent Benet. America is perhaps his best work and was written shortly before his death.

America may be called a history of the United States, but it is not to be confused with a dull text book. Mr. Benet traces the history of our country from the very beginning of the colonies to the present conflict.

This novel relates so effectively the fundamental American belief in freedom. And through this belief he shows why America will win the present war.

He shows in a clear pattern the steps which America followed in dealing with foreign possessions.

In days which other nations are showering admiration upon our country, read something that will give you pride in the past of America.

America is found in the real library.

Your Victorious Year

This year is expected to be one of victory on the war fronts. For you who are starting to college and you who are continuing your studies, this year will be doubly victorious. Many of you have come to school in preference to accepting highly paid wartime jobs which would have left you entirely unprepared for post-war positions. You are to be congratulated for your foresight. Now make this school year really worthwhile.

Make it a year of victory.

Student Union Hours
Slated By Mrs. Mullis

Mrs. C. C. Mullis has announced that the hours of the Student Union will be from nine o'clock to 12 o'clock in the morning, and from three to five o'clock in the afternoon. The definite hours for the post office will be announced at a later date.

Notice To Staff

The first COLONNADE Staff meeting will be held in the COLONNADE office at 4:10, September 27. Through error the time set for staff meetings of the COLONNADE was in Handbook and on the college calendar at 4:40 on Wednesdays. Please change that time on your calendar to 4:10 on Wednesdays. We will have a short meeting each Wednesday at that time. All staff members are urged to be present at that time each week.

Any student who wishes to join the COLONNADE staff is asked to come to the meeting in the COLONNADE office. No experience is required.

Thank you.

Date Set For Snag
Week, October 2-7

Snag Week, an annual event originated by the Recreation Association, will be held throughout the week of October 2-7, according to Helen Wallace, who is chairman of the week's activities.

The purpose of Snag Week is to acquaint the new students with the numerous purposes and activities of the clubs on the campus.

During the week, students will visit the dormitories and discuss the various aspects of each club participating.

Camaxing the week will be Physical Fitness Day on Saturday. Competition will be between dormitories, and the cup will be awarded to the dormitory "most physically fit."

Clubs participating in Snag Week are: Tennis Club, Cotillion Club, Folk Club, Modern Dance Club, Penguin Club, Tumbling Club, Jesters, Commerce Club, and Health Club.

The motion for Snag Week is "Sports Need All Girls," and this means you.

McPherson To Speak
At Methodist Church

Dr. N. C. McPherson, Jr., president of Wesleyan College, will speak to the Young People's Union of the Methodist Church Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

The World Communion Service at the Methodist church will be conducted by Rev. J. W. O. McKibben, district superintendent.

"I understand it's a form of physical maladjustment created by a marked disorientation with a change in environment wherein the family unit is disrupted—called homesickness."

Seven Professors
Return To Campus

Seven professors have returned to the campus after periods of study at other institutions. They are named below with their places of study:

Miss Mary Brooks has returned to the campus after a year of study on a fellowship in the Collaboration Center for Human Development and Education, University of Chicago.

Miss Austelle Adams will be assistant librarian and instructor in Library Science, having returned from a year's study under General Education Board fellowship in the Peabody Library School, where she received the B.S. degree in Library Science.

Miss Alethea Whitney completed the requirements and received the Master's Degree from the University of Tennessee in August of this year.

Mrs. Bernice Brown McCullar completed the work to her Master's Degree at Mercer University this summer.

Miss Carol Pryor, instructor in Health, resigned; and Mrs. Mary Joyce Ireland, who filled her place during the Spring, while Mrs. Pryor was on leave of absence, has been selected to fill the place.

Miss Bernice Freeman is on a year's leave of absence for study at Teachers College New York in a General Education Board fellowship.

Miss Helen Green has returned to the campus after completing research work throughout the state.

Miss Maggie Jenkins, Assistant Professor of Music, has returned after nine months of study at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois.

Mademoiselle Opens
Editorship Contest

A month in New York as Guest-Editor of Mademoiselle is the much coveted journalistic plum toward which career-minded collegians with a flair for writing, reporting, photography, illustration, and so forth, can direct their efforts now. Mademoiselle is again inviting applications for membership on its College Board.

Being a Board member means completing four assignments a year which, in toto, give a rounded portrait of the college—its activities, new courses, new trends, social aspects, everything that's new.

Mademoiselle awards war bonds and stamps for the brightest reports; pay Board members for material used and in addition, pays $2.50 each for snapshots that appear in the magazine.

Everything submitted during the year counts toward that final plum, the Guest Editorship. And 14 girls are chosen each year to enjoy that marvelous month in New York during which, as guests of Mademoiselle, visiting Eds go everywhere and do everything with the magazine's own staff, get out its bumper August College issue, pose for pictures, model for the College Clinic and are paid a fat round sum besides.

On application to Mademoiselle, would-be-board members will be invited to send a brief report spotlighting anything newsworthy on the campus, a snapshot of themselves, their college address and home address, school year, and an idea of their extracurricular activities and interests.

Mademoiselle makes a quick decision and the fun begins.

Mademoiselle's address is 122 East 42nd Street, New York 17.

Blalock Urges GSCW
To Form League

"Now that the voting age has been lowered to 18 the Georgia college girls of today have a greater opportunity to exercise their intelligence in sane investigation into matters that touch Georgia voters," stated Mrs. John Blalock, president of the Georgia League of Women Voters in her address to the college student officers' retreat at Lake Laurel last week-end.

"To me, citizenship and democracy are more than just two words we learn in civics. They are words with meaning," she continued in the same vein. She later stressed the value of these two words for the young voters of Georgia. She emphasized how important she considered it is for educated people to evaluate matters of public concern and to vote intelligently on these policies. In order to promote this on the GSCW campus, she advocated the student body's forming a Student League of Women Voters.

She outlined the duties of such a league on the GSCW campus as doing the following:

To have investigation and study of the state, national, and international problems in campus groups.

To attempt to solve intelligent problems of the present.

To be void of any political party or platform.

Parker Promoted To Captain in WAC

SANTA ANA, Calif.—Promotion of 1st Lt. Jeanne Harris Parker, WAC, to the rank of captain, has been announced by Headquarters, AAF Western Flying Training Command.

Capt. Parker, daughter of Mrs. Mary C. Parker, 217 East Washington Street, Thomasville, Ga., is a graduate of GSCW and was a teacher of elementary grades in civil life.

She entered the service as an officer candidate on October 12, 1942, and was commissioned a second lieutenant December 5, 1942, at Fort Des Moines. Her former assignments include duty with the Programs Branch at AAF Headquarters, Washington, and with this headquarters as assistant to the WAC Staff Director.

Captain Parker has been assigned to the staff of the Judge Advocate of the AAFWTC since September, 1943.

"STRANGER THAN FICTION"

(From Navord Fuse Box)

By HOWARD CASS

Are you one who is interested in the human side of the news? Of late, there have been several news items which from this angle seem charged with unusual human interest.

There is the story that a staff sergeant from Alabama is returning home on the exchange ship "Gripsholm." Nothing especially unusual about that you say until you learn that this sergeant was a top turret gunner on a Flying Fortress raiding Hanover, Germany, in July, 1943. A German cannon shell tore off his left arm. Rapidly bleeding to death, his crewmates applied tourniquets, strapped on a parachute and pitched him out of the plane on the thousand to one chance that he would receive medical attention before it was too late. Landing near Vechta, the sergeant was picked up and operated on by German surgeons within a few hours, and today is on his way home minus an arm, but alive, and with memories of an experience that is stranger than fiction.

And finally, how about the story of little three year old Gary Nelson of Los Angeles, who lost his right arm in an accident more than a year ago. To stimulate the boy, his father told him tales of Pete Gray, the famous one-armed ball player of the Memphis Chicks of the Southern Association. Last Wednesday, Pete Gray was voted the most valuable player in the Southern Association and that night led his team to a 12 inning 7-6 victory over Nashville in the first play.

More school and more power to them, meaning our graduate school girls. Faye Hancock is at the University of North Carolina; Betty Collins at Tulane; Frances Ridgeway and Hilde Pope at Duke. Three of our statistics majors are doing their student dietitian internship: Margaret McCann at the General Hospital in Cincinnati; Maybess Murphy at the Duke University Hospital; and Martha Howard in Kansas.

In the great profession of teaching we find Carolyn DeLong teaching Spanish at Girls High in Atlanta. The two physical education majors of last year are both teaching: Margaret Wilson at Jacksonville, Fla.; and Beth Brooks at Thomaston High. Florence Hooten and Doris Proctor, both of Phoenix, are teaching. Florence is in Raleigh, N. C., and Doris close by at Tennille.

Betty Ward is teaching music in Arlington and Lavinia Roughton, science at Dalton. Davidson Paxon claims these of our girls: Martha Duke as Junior Executive; Evelyn Davis as Assistant Buyer; Doris Phillips as Dietitian.

Billy Bundy is a laboratory technician for Swift and Co. in Atlanta; while Sara Kirkland is a physiotherapist assistant in Atlanta.

In the realm of secretaries are Eleanor Douglas and Mary Frances Murchison, both for the FBI in Atlanta. Just a couple of flat-foots at heart.

Sara Penn, one of the two-year graduates selected work at Robins Field in Macon. She's one of the recreational directors. There they are, those and many more just like them.

Pictured above is Patricia Travers, who will open the Concert Series this year with a performance on Nov. 10.

Travers Slated For Performance Here

Slated for the opening program of this year's Concert Series is Patricia Travers, young violinist, who will make her appearance in Milledgeville November 10, in Russell Auditorium.

The visit of Lansing Hatfield, baritone, to the campus is to be during Spring Quarter. Other talent under consideration to be brought here are Martha Graham and Dance Company; San Roma, Puerto Rican pianist; Gregor Pignorsky, cellist; Busch Little Symphony; Brune Castagna, conductor.

Tractor Riding "Grandma" Praises War Bond League

Mrs. K. C. Henkle of Kenton, Ohio, does more than her share of war work. She and her husband run two farms at maximum production and with almost no outside help. In addition, Mrs. Henkle is chairman in her township for War Bond sales, for the Red Cross and for the combined scrap paper and grease salvage campaign. She is also a writer and has composed poems for War Bond and Red Cross programs over Stations WMRN, Marion, and WLW, Cincinnati.

Mrs. Henkle, who has an Army son, a Navy son, and an Army son-in-law, enthusiastically endorses Mrs. George C. Marshall's appeal to grandmothers to buy Bonds for their grandchildren. She herself takes turns buying Bonds for her five grandchildren ranging in age from 4 months to 11 years. "Those Bonds," she says, "will help educate the children and set them up in businesses and farms ten happy years from now."

The Grandmothers League was founded by General Marshall's wife and has been widely accepted as a worthy and unselfish Bond-buying drive.

to see the "new crop." Methinks they were well pleased.

Saturday afternoon denominational parties were fun, food, fellowship and a real treat for all. The circus idea was predominant with both Baptist and Methodist groups using that theme. The trip to the Mansion that night found all the new students taking in the colonial splendor of the old Governor's Mansion. Filled with ancient memories, the very walls whispered lovely secrets to all who entered—or was that the receiving line?

Heigh, Heigh, Ho—to GMC we go! And so began the Baldwin County Alumnae Association tea. The Old Capitol Building was thoroughly inspected and most delicious tea sipped at Mrs. W. M. Miller's.

Tired, happy and contented (we hope), new students have been thoroughly and well orientated into their new life at GSC. So, we all say farewell to the past week of rest and relaxation. Classes have begun and now we can sleep it all off!

Sanford Addresses Student Body; Town Officials Introduced

S. V. Sanford, Chancellor of the University System of Georgia, addressed the student body and faculty of GSCW at the formal opening of the college Monday morning. At this time he stated that buildings, equipment and endowments do not make the institution, but rather loyalty, scholarship of the students past and present.

Town persons and officials were introduced at the exercises included: Regent Miller R. Bell, Colonel J. H. Jenkins of GMC, Lieutenant Florence McMann of the Naval Training School, Mayor W. L. Ritchie, the ministers of the city, and L. D. Langley, superintendent of county schools.

THREE MAJOR OBJECTIVES

ership. "Experience has shown that the happy student is the one who has something to do and whose schedule is well rounded. Some of the means to be used in the execution of this plan are to place responsibility on a greater number of students through work with dormitory councils, floor leaders, and College Government committees, and to give each student an opportunity to participate in the meetings of Student Council and to make suggestions to CGA groups."

Eugenia Winslow, president of YWCA, has stated its purpose for the year as:

"It is our purpose to help each student realize a full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God, and to lay a foundation for future action in making this life possible for all people.

"In doing this, we offer opportunities for every girl to develop her own thinking through:
"1. Worship in the form of morning watch and chapel devotionals.

"2. Discussions at Current Affairs Study Group and Class Y Club.

"3. Guest speakers in chapel. Monday night, Y meetings, and institutes such as Religious Emphasis Week.

"4. Recreation provided by parties, outings, and socials such as the weekly supper for a group of WAVES.

"5. Active participation in the projects and activities of Y."
